

The International Center for Transitional Justice is pleased to invite you to a private performance of

BETRAYED

Written by GEORGE PACKER Directed by PIPPIN PARKER

"A play so accomplished, so powerful, so truly theatrical... Every American should see it!"

- John Simon, Bloomberg

"Heart-rending!...The clarity of the writing, the urgency of the story and the fine performances give the play a sharp dramatic impact and a plain-spoken beauty."

- The New York Times

Post-performance conversation with

George Packer
playwright & author

Razzaq al Saiedi
former Iraqi translator for the ICTJ
& The New York Times

Miranda Sissons
Deputy Director for the Middle East, ICTJ

Wednesday, March 12, 2008
7 pm reception
8 pm performance

Culture Project
55 Mercer Street
(between Broome and Grand)
New York City

Kindly RSVP by March 4th to Alexandra Rizio at (917) 637 3824 or arizio@ictj.org

Seating is limited. Invitation is non-transferable.

